

BROWN'S Beach House

Francis H. I'i Brown was a gifted statesman and leading Hawaiian figure in the 20th century. An internationally known Hawaiian athlete in the 1920's and often referred to as the "last Ali'i," Francis I'i Brown was the grandson of John Papa I'i, son of a Hawaiian chief in Kona. At age ten, John joined the royal court and became a trusted friend of the future King Kamehameha II. Kalabuiipua 'a, now known as Mauna Lani, was a special retreat for Francis—a special place where he could "be Hawaiian." He loved to tend to the natural fishponds, raise animals, fish and entertain—living a value referred to as ho'okepa (hospitality). The Fairmont Orchid is a place where people can enjoy true Hawaiian hospitality and the unspoiled beauty of the island.
